ATTACKED FILIPINOS.

MacArthur Routs the Insurgent Army at San Fernando.

THE INSURGENTS SURPRISED.

The Enemy Stuck to Their Trenches Until the Firing Became Too Hot For Them and Fell Back in Disorder.

Washington, Aug. 9.—General Otis confirms the report of a battle at San Fernando in the following cablegram: "Manilla, Aug. 9.—MacArthur, with 4,000 men, attacked insurgent army, 8,000 strong, concentrated around San Fernando, 5:15 a. m. At 10 a. m. had driven it five miles in direction of Angeles. Casualties few. Attack ordered for Aug. 7; rain did not permit movement. Railway from Angeles north badly washed by unprecedented floods of last six weeks beyond ability of insurgents to repair."

DETAILS OF BATTLE
In Places the Mud Was Knee Deep on Field Fought Over.

Manilla, Aug. 9.—Details of General MacArthur's advance beyond San Fernando showed that the Americans covered five miles in the first five hours, and at 2 o'clock had advanced six miles along the railway stretching on each side of it for two miles and resting at night three miles from Angeles, which will be made the northern base of operations, instead of San Fernando, where a garrison of 600 men has been left. The casualties are between 30 and 40. The Filipinos were surprised, expecting the American forces to move against Tico. They followed their usual tactics of holding their trenches until they became too warm and then retreating in disorder. They are now falling back westward to Poric. The Twelfth and Seventeenth regiments had the sharpest engagements.

The country our troops passed over is covered with rice fields and bamboo thickets, the hardest possible ground for marching. The mud in places was knee deep.

Angeles is one of the richest towns north of Manilla, and is considered to be a better base of operations than San Fernando. The forces at San Fernando consisted of the Iowa regiment, the Seventeenth, the Ninth, the Twelfth regiment, Pells' new Thirty-sixth regiment, a battalion of the Sixteenth regiment, troop E of the Fourth cavalry and 15 guns.

The movement had been planned for some time, but was delayed by rains. Finally two days of sunshine dried the rice fields sufficiently to permit of the attempt. The Americans' position had long been unpleasant. The insurgents almost surrounded the town and fired nearly nightly into it, the Americans not replying except on extreme provocation. It was necessary to keep 500 to 600 men on the outpost duty constantly.

The American loss in the fighting about San Fernando at 3 o'clock was known to be eight men killed and 26 wounded. The loss may possibly exceed these figures, as the line is five miles long, and it is impossible at this hour to hear from every point.

Our troops are now about Angeles waiting for the artillery, which has the greatest difficulty in moving owing to the wet ground.

The attack was opened at 5 a. m. A battery of the First artillery shelling Bacolor on the left. Simultaneously Bell's Thirty-sixth infantry struck Bacolor from the rear and drove the insurgents out. Armored cars, each with a 6-pounder and two gatling revolving cannon on board, were mounted on the railroad track in the center of our lines. Soon afterwards these guns did sharp execution.

Battery M of the Third artillery and 100 men of the Iowa regiment made a feint towards Mexico, while the main body of troops, consisting of the Iowa regiment, the Seventeenth regiment and a battalion of the Twenty-second under General Wheaton on the right, and the Ninth regiment, Twelfth regiment and Bell's regiment, under Liscum, on the left, advanced steadily, pouring their fire into the insurgents and receiving a heavy fire in return.

The Filipinos were well protected by trenches and seemed not to lack ammunition. But they were unable to withstand for any length of time the hail of shots our artillery and infantry poured in on them, and retreated, leaving dead and wounded on the field. A dozen prisoners were captured by our troops.

The reports indicate that the Ninth infantry suffered the most, though the casualties of all the regiments are not yet reported.

The weather was extremely hot and our troops suffered greatly, but there was no faltering.

A company of the Sixteenth regiment went to the relief of Bell's regiment. According to reports the insurgents are harassing him in the rear.

GOING TO WASHINGTON To Complain of Their Wrongs to the President.

New York, Aug. 9.—A. Cervantes, editor, and Ricardo Arnauto, manager of the El Reconcentrado, the suppressed Havana newspaper, who are now on the way to Washington to complain of their wrongs, have issued a joint statement. Among other things they say:

"El Reconcentrado was in existence long before the war between America and Spain had begun. Because of the radical and liberty-loving policy of the paper the Spanish officers thought well to suppress the paper, and for a time its regular issues ceased. It was only on July 30, and by order of General Ludlow, of the American army, that the office was finally closed. El Reconcentrado was an independent organ whose aim was the independence of Cuba, and at the same time was the only recognized organ of the Cuban army.

"Today there is no independence in Cuba, and I cannot be led to believe, after my experience as an editor, that the American flag floats over the island of Cuba. In fact, the inhabitants, or many of them, still think that the Spanish emblem floats over Morro Castle. They have no reason to know any difference."

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Discouraged Wife Kills Husband, Daughter and Herself.

Canton, O., Aug. 9.—A terrible tragedy occurred three miles east of this city resulting in the death of Edward Eckinger, his wife and 3-year-old daughter. Neighbors discovered the dead bodies of the three lying upon the bed in the Eckinger home.

Mrs. Eckinger evidently first shot her husband and daughter with a shotgun and then tried to commit suicide by gashing the veins in her wrist with a knife. The latter apparently proved too slow or else too painful, for the woman put a third charge into the gun and sent it through her heart.

Eckinger was 25 years old and a farm laborer. Lately he has been drinking quite heavily and frequent quarrels took place between him and his wife. The couple had agreed to separate. Mrs. Eckinger was aged 23.

Fatally Injured.

Chillicothe, O., Aug. 9.—Nelson Bitzer, a prominent farmer, was fatally injured in a very singular accident. He was driving a traction engine and separator down a steep grade, when they got beyond his control. The separator crashed forward into the engine, crushing Bitzer against the boiler and injuring him so badly internally that he can not recover. He was also terribly scalded by escaping steam.

Mormons to Locate in Ohio.

Greenville, O., Aug. 9.—D. H. Doan, representing the National Mormon society, is here from Chattanooga, under instructions from President Eiche, to look over the country, with a view to purchasing enough land to establish a Mormon community. The set of people will locate somewhere in Ohio, and are looking for a suitable place.

She Had Money.

Akron, O., Aug. 9.—A remarkable discovery was made by the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Tallman. Shortly after Mrs. Tallman's death an old shawl was found in a remote section of the house. When it was opened it was discovered that it was wrapped around a large roll of bills, amounting to $100,000.

Oil Driller Drilled.

McConnelsville, O., Aug. 9.—Two oil drillers named Clark and Harper working on the rear and drove the insurgents out. Armored cars, each with a 6-pounder and two gatling revolving cannon on board, were mounted on the railroad track in the center of our lines. Soon afterwards these guns did sharp execution.

Contract For Coke Ovens.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 9.—A contract has been made by the National Steel company with J. W. Rainey, a Pittsburgh oven builder, for the erection of 300 new coke ovens in the Connellsburg coke regions and work on them has to $3,000. No one supposed the work already been commenced.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Aug. 9.—The South End Athletic club, Lancaster; the William Job Coal company, Toledo, capital stock $50,000; the Niles Red Cross Medical association, Niles, capital stock $5,000; the Mahoning Land and Improvement company, Youngstown, capital stock $10,000.

Charged With Dynamiting.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 9.—Charles H. Bond, 18 years old, was placed under arrest upon charges of placing explosives on the track of the Big Consolidated during the strike on the road in June last. The police are confident they have made an important arrest.

Probably Fatal.

Columbus, O., Aug. 9.—Mrs. John McNulty and her daughter Bertha were probably fatally burned by an explosion of gasoline.

OPPOSED TO TRUSTS.

Governors and Attorney Generals Will Meet In St. Louis.

A NONPARTISAN GATHERING.

Replies to Invitations Indicate That More Than Three-Fourths of the States of the Union Will Be Represented.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Mayor Ziegenheim announces that ample arrangements will be made for the anti-trust meeting of the governors and attorney generals to be held in this city on Sept. 2. A suitable hall will be provided and every convenience placed at the disposal of the guests. Details of the arrangements will be announced when it is definitely known about how many guests may be expected.

This meeting was called some time ago by Governor Sayers of Texas. He extended a general invitation to all governors and attorney generals in the United States to be present. Replies have been received from many of them indicating that they will attend, and it is believed now that more than three-fourths of the states will be represented.

It appears that Mayor Ziegenheim was under the impression at first that the meeting would not be participated in by Republican officials, but that it would be purely a Democratic affair. When he learned that the gathering would be non-partisan and a number of Republican governors and attorney generals would be present he began evincing a lively interest in the meeting, and now promises to leave nothing undone to give the visitors a royal welcome and make the meeting a success.

The sole object of the gathering is to devise means for exterminating trusts and combinations, which control prices of commodities of trade and the output of the mines, of the fields, shops and factories.

Rennes, France, Aug. 8.—The secret session of the Dreyfus court-martial lasted from 6:30 until 11:45 a. m. General Chanoine has nearly completed his part of the explanation of the dossier. When finished M. Paleologue, of the foreign office, will take up the task, which it is understood will be completed Friday next. A public session, therefore, will take place Saturday morning. The dossier consists of about 400 documents, of which 50 have already been disposed of.

Congregation Excommunicated.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—The decree of Bishop Janssen of the Roman Catholic diocese of Belleville excommunicating the members of St. Patrick's congregation of East St. Louis, who are in rebellion against his authority in the matter of appointing a German-born priest to succeed an Irish-American rector, went into effect, when the communicants held a meeting in defiance of the prelate.

Still Deliberating.

Pretoria, Aug. 9.—The reply to Mr. Chamberlain's proposal of a joint commission of inquiry has not yet been forwarded and the Transvaal government is still deliberating. Various rumors are current regarding the result of the secret session of the volksraad, but no official announcement has been made.

GENERAL CORBIN'S LETTER. Writes Encouragingly of Situation In the Philippines.

Wilmington, O., Aug. 9.—At the annual reunion of the Seventy-ninth Ohio regiment held here a letter was read from Adjutant General H. C. Corbin, whose military service began as second lieutenant in this regiment. In the course of the letter, General Corbin says:

"Many of the men have asked me to write them of our work in the Philippines. It is already a long and interesting chapter; and yet, for obvious reason, I hesitate to even touch upon it. The war with Spain was forced upon us. It became our duty to drive Spain from this side of the continent. In doing so, under the laws of nations, we feel heir to those islands, but they came as a sequence of a successful war; a responsibility that our government did not solicit, but one we are in honor and duty bound to meet.

"In the affairs of nations, no less than of men, time enters into the problem. Our former comrades well know that we cannot plant corn one week and harvest it the next. When I tended the fields as a lad we planted in the springtime, and, if diligent in the care of the crop, we harvested in the autumn.

"We cannot hope to do better in our undertaking in the archipelago. Farmers never planted successfully out of season. No more can the army operate successfully over there in the rainy season. A resolution of congress, making appropriations does not give us an army and equipments. These follow in time, but only successfully with time, great care and diligence. These have been given, and if I mistake not, very soon you will see the efforts of Dewey, Merritt, Otis, Lawton, MacArthur and our other gallant generals and their soldiers and sailors, gather a bountiful harvest of success, one that will thrill the heart of our gods soldiers and make all our people glad, and then the people can instruct what further they would have us do."

CLIFF DWELLERS.

Valuable Relics Unearthed In Ancient Cities of Southwest.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 9.—Laden with relics of the cliff dwellers, Rev. Dr. George T. Cole has returned from a journey to the ruined cities of Southeastern Colorado and New Mexico. Valuable results were secured by excavations in ancient communal dwellings, as yet unnamed, which stand on cliffs of the Santa Fe river, 14 miles from Espanola, N. M. There were not less than 1600 rooms in the large building in its prime. It was 240 by 300 feet. Dr. Cole estimates that from 4800 to 6000 people lived in the place.

Among the bones taken from the burial mound were a woman's femur 19 inches long, showing a giant seven feet tall. The cliff on which the ruin stands rises a thousand feet above the surrounding country.

What the Police Book Shows.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mr. Moss presented the day's proceedings of the Mazzetti committee with the statement that the book kept by the chief of police showed that in the 80 police precincts of the city there were but 83 houses suspected of being disorderly, 44 places where police is played, 25 poolrooms and 11 suspected gambling houses.

Story Denied.

Paris, Aug. 9.—The minister of the interior has issued a note saying the story that Prince Von Munster-Leddenburg, the German ambassador here, has visited General Marquis de Galifet, minister of war, and insisted upon a guarantee against indiscretions prejudicial to Germany at the Rennes court-martial, is absolutely false.

Cotton Mills Going South.

Biddeford, Aug. 9.—Arrangements are being made for the removal of the Springvale cotton mills of Springvale, Me., to Fort Valley, Ga. The removal will be the second of the kind from York county. About one year ago the Portsmouth cotton mill of South Berwick, a small corporation, went south.

Democrats Divided.

Syracuse, Aug. 9.—A meeting of the Chicago platform Democrats of New York state was called to order at 11:30 a. m., with 50 delegates in attendance. A fight was precipitated on the floor. The anti-trust and anti-imperialism factions were on one side and the ultra free silver faction on the other.

May Cause Trouble.

London, Aug. 9.—The British torpedo gunboat Leda found a French boat fishing within the 3-mile limit. The fisherman attempted to escape and did not stop when a blank shot was fired. The Leda then fired a shot disabling the fishing boat and killed the helmsman.

Burned to Death.

Ashtabula, O., Aug. 9.—The charred body of Swede Charlie was found in the ruins of his burned shop.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

Parliament Prorogued by a Royal Commission.

AT PEACE WITH THE POWERS

Her Majesty Speaks of the Recent Peace Conference and Mentions a Petition Received From South Africa.

London, Aug. 9.—The queen's speech at the prorogation of parliament contained the following statements:

"My relations with the other powers continue friendly."

"The conference summoned by the emperor of Russia to consider measures for promoting the maintenance of peace has completed its sittings. Although the result of its deliberations did not duly correspond with the lofty aims which it was summoned to accomplish, it has met with a considerable measure of success. The institution of a permanent tribunal of arbitration cannot fail to diminish the frequency of war, while the extension of the Geneva convention will mitigate its horrors."

"After reference to the conclusion of Anglo-French convention on the subject of the Nile valley and the Anglo-Russian convention in regard to railway enterprises in China, the speech continued:

"We have received a petition from a considerable number of my subjects residing in the South African republic, praying my assistance to obtain a removal of grievances and disabilities of which they complain. The position of my subjects in the South African republic is inconsistent with the promise of equal treatment whereon my grant of independence was founded, and the unrest caused thereby is a constant source of danger to the peace and prosperity of the dominions in South Africa. Negotiations on this subject with the government of the South African republic have been entered into and are still proceeding."

"Another paragraph deals with the satisfactory reports of the recovery of the agriculture and trade of India from the depression caused by the famine, but it adds fears are now entertained for the prospects of harvests in western and central India owing to the insufficient rainfall, though the officials are taking timely precautions to meet any scarcity. The speech then reads:

"I regret to add that the

We are more convinced every day that what the Democrats will do to ex-Governor Brown next November will be more than sufficient.

The Eighth U. S. Cavalry en route to the Philippines passed through Maysville Tuesday. The train carrying the troopers was made up of sixteen coaches and will go through to San Francisco. There were eight cars of horses, three of supplies and five sleepers filled with the men. General Wheeler, the dashing cavalry leader and hero of San Juan, will have command of the cavalry in the Philippine campaign.

MISS RELLA TOLLE, of East Second street, who has been seriously ill the past four weeks, is slowly improving.

You Are Invited.

An interesting feature of religious life this summer is the Student Volunteer Mission Movement. The young men are spending their college vacations visiting the churches and holding meetings for the young people, at which no collections are taken, but the relation of the young to foreign missions is discussed. Such a meeting will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church Friday evening, August 11th, by Mr. A. J. A. Alexander, of Spring Station, Ky. All the young people of the city are cordially invited to be present.

THE KENTUCKY CONTEST.

Much Depends on the Result of the Present Lively Campaign.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., August 8.—John W. Tomlinson, Chairman of the Democratic Bimetallic Committee, in an interview in the Age-Herald, says:

"The contest in Kentucky may have an important bearing on the status of the United States Senate on silver, which is now a tie. If the gold Senator of Kentucky and the one in Louisiana are displaced by silver men, it would give the silver forces two majority, even should they fail to displace gold Senators in States like Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, West Virginia, Michigan, Wyoming and others whose terms expire in 1901. It is of the utmost importance that the Democrats should carry the day in Kentucky."

MR. MILTON McCARTHEY, who was reported very ill some weeks since, is now up and able to be about.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

THE BAR'S TRIBUTE.

Resolutions Adopted Wednesday Afternoon On the Death of Judge Whitaker.

His Public Record Untainted by the Breath of Suspicion or Charge of Wrong-Doing.

At the meeting of the Mason County Bar Wednesday afternoon to take action on the death of Judge Emery Whitaker, the following was adopted:

We, the undersigned committee appointed by the Mason County Bar to draft resolutions on the death of our brother attorney, Hon. Emery Whitaker, respectfully report as follows, viz:

Hon. Emery Whitaker, the senior member of the Mason County Bar, died after a brief illness at his residence near Maysville, Kentucky, on Monday night, August 7th, 1899, in the eighty-third year of his age, surrounded by his family. Now,

Be it resolved by the Mason County Bar, That in the death of Judge Whitaker our bar has lost an eminent member, whose long and faithful service in his profession has been distinguished by a fidelity to his clients, a purity of life and honesty of conduct that have won him a place in the front rank of the profession and have gained and held the confidence of his clients and the respect and esteem of his associates. His family has lost a tender and loving husband and an unselfish and affectionate father. The community has lost a true citizen, a man foremost in all efforts to promote the public good, a warm and earnest advocate of our public school system, fearless in the discharge of his duty and in the utterance of his views on public questions.

Judge Whitaker was born in Sullivan County, New Hampshire, on December 19th, 1816, and in 1840 he came to Mason County, Kentucky, and taught school. He decided to enter the profession of the law and in 1841 was admitted to the bar and for fifty-five years was actively engaged in the practice of his profession in nearly all the counties of Eastern Kentucky and the Court of Appeals. In his profession he was an earnest advocate, more anxious that the main principles

That we deeply deplore his death and extend our heartfelt sympathy to his greatly bereaved family.

That we attend his funeral in a body, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and also to the Maysville papers for publication, and the Chairman of this meeting is directed to present same to the Mason County Court and Mason Circuit Court and cause same to be spread as a memorial on the records thereof.

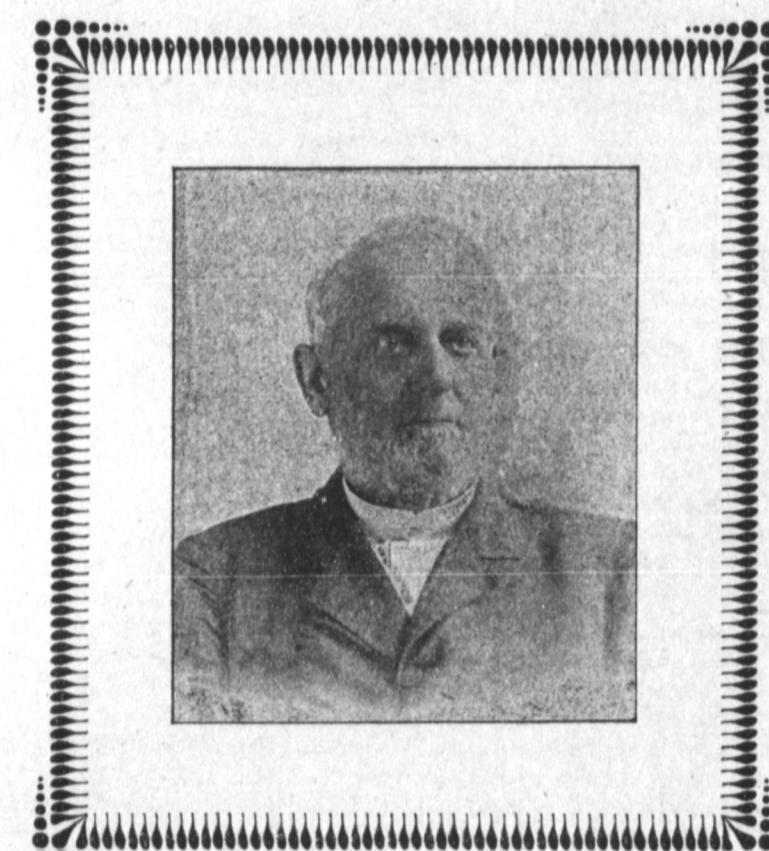

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. WORTHINGTON,
W. P. COONS,
J. N. REHOE,
JAMES H. SALLIE,
THOMAS R. PHISTER,
THOS. A. RESPES.

At Tuesday's meeting of the bar, Mr. Thomas A. Respess, on assuming the chair, paid Judge Whitaker the following tribute:

Gentlemen of the Bar: A warm personal friend of Judge Whitaker, whose death leaves me the oldest member of the Mason Bar, I cannot allow this sad occasion to pass without adding my tribute to the more worthy ones, which the eloquent members of the bar will place upon the bier of our departed friend. Maysville weeps to-day and will not be comforted. The heart that loved her, gloried in her growth, rejoiced in her prosperity, defended her honor and would, had occasion demanded, with its purple tide, have vindicated her fair fame, less chilled and chained in the icy embrace of death. Only yesterday, and in all the fullness of life, in the pride and strength of a splendid manhood, though his sun had passed its meridian, he was with us. To-morrow we will follow him to the grave. Another and forcible reminder of the instability of life.

A public calamity has fallen upon our community in the death of Judge Whitaker. He was indeed one of nature's noblemen. It is only when men are placed in power and position that their true character is revealed. Which of us has not, at some time or other, had forced upon his attention the insolence of exalted beggary, the intolerable arrogance of suddenly acquired opulence, the insufferable patronage of accidental greatness, those sure marks of native coarseness, of native weakness, and I might say of native worthlessness. From all those vices so indicative of meanness of mind and heart Emery Whitaker was singularly exempt.

Honored, by the community, with places of power and position, he brought to the discharge of his high duties the courage of the hero, the humility of the child. In him was happily blended that steadiness of will, integrity of purpose and simplicity of character, which are the sure marks of true greatness. No man was ever of justice should prevail than that they should be hampered by the technicalities and niceties that too frequently obstruct the righteous cause.

In his long life he was repeatedly called upon to serve the people in public offices, and we point with pride to his many years of faithful public service, absolutely untainted by any breath of scandal or charge of wrong-doing. In 1849 he was sent as the R-representative of Mason County to the State Legislature, where his talents as a speaker, his strong common sense and purity of character, placed him in the front ranks. In 1850 he was made School Commissioner of Mason County, Judge Richard Collins being his associate. His experience as a teacher showed him the needs of the system, and the development of the schools of our county was given a great impetus under his wise administration. In 1854 he was elected by the people as County Judge, which office he filled with honor until 1858. The confidence of the people in him never wavered and after the war, he was in 1869 elected State Senator for four years, being largely instrumental in securing the passage of many much-needed laws. As Chairman of the State Board of Equalization, which office he held for four years, he made a record seldom equalled for justice and impartiality. His public career was closed with his eminent services as a member of the Constitutional convention, to which position he was elected without opposition. He took a prominent part in the deliberations of that body, being Chairman of several of the most important committees. Since the ratification of the Constitution he has lived quietly at home, practicing his profession, happy in the possession of his mental and physical faculties unimpaired, in the consciousness of a well spent and useful life, beloved by his family, admired by his friends and respected by all.

"Farewell my friends, farewell my foes. My peace with these, my love with those."

Would that his independence of spirit, breadth of mind and nobility of heart were more generally shared in by the public men of our day and age. To him the hypocrite, bigot and time-server, whatever name they professed, clothes they wore or position they disdained, were an abomination. He loved his country, he loved his people, he loved his family and without irreverence it may be said of him that "he loved them even unto the end." By word and act, in season and out of season, in his official as well as in his private life, he preached the gospel of peace and good will to men, and was himself its living exponent. What grander work could be accomplished? What higher mission? It made his life a benediction to his family and friends; it will make his memory an inspiration.

"Peace to his ashes, tears for his grave and honor to his memory."

At Wednesday's meeting, Judge Phister, Judge Coons and Messrs. Geo. W. Sulser and L. W. Galbraith added their tributes to deceased.

The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating. Mr. Thomas A. Respess, Judge Coons, Mr. G. S. Judd, Mr. A. M. J. Cochran, Judge Wall and Mr. G. W. Adair will act as pallbearers.

DISC DRILLS

Are King and Queen of all Drills. Their superiority over all competitors are too well known to need comment. suffice it to say that we placed over sixty of these Drills the past season and have yet the first complaint from a single purchaser. On the other hand every one who used them stand ready and willing to give their testimonial as to the superior work done by them, and their unanimous verdict is if you expect to purchase a Drill this season, get either the

and no other. Do not delay placing your orders and there will be no disappointments, as is the case each season when we are forced to resort to the river and express, which makes an additional expense. Every Drill is warranted to be just as represented. Do not allow yourself to be talked into buying some inferior Drill for the sake of saving a few dollars. Remember the cheapest is not the best, but the best is always the cheapest. Respectfully,

Zinc Ores Go Up.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 9.—The climax of the Missouri and Kansas Zinc Miners' association's fight against the smelters for higher prices for zinc was reached when the association announced that it had made the prices for all grades of zinc for the next six months. The schedule for the ensuing half year makes the price for ore running 63 per cent. metal $46 per ton and for every one per cent. metal less $1 less per ton. The zinc ore of this district generally runs from 30 to 63 per cent. metal. It is predicted prices of zinc ore will go to $50 within a month.

Killed by a Mob.

Amite City, La., Aug. 9.—Adolphus, alias Echo Brown, colored, was shot and killed and Edgar and Edward Barr, severely flogged by a gang of armed men. Ten of the mob, armed with shot guns and pistols, entered a house and found Echo Brown and Edgar Barr in bed. They told them to get up, and throwing sacks over their heads dragged them out. As soon as they got out in the road Echo made a futile break for liberty, but had only gone a little way when several guns were leveled at him and their contents poured into his back with fatal results.

BRYAN AND STONE.

The Big Democratic Leaders are Both for Goebel in His Fight for Governor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—William Jennings Bryan passed through Chicago to-day from Wisconsin to Iowa. He was asked: "Are you going into Kentucky during the campaign in that State?"

"I am," he replied. "Are you going to speak for Goebel?"

"I am."

"And why?"

"I do not care to discuss that point."

Further than that Colonel Bryan refused to talk about the Kentucky situation.

OWENSBORO, Ky., August 7.—The following letter from ex-Governor William J. Stone, of Missouri, on the situation in Kentucky, is second in interest only to the recent letter of Mr. Bryan, who not only indorsed the platform and action of the Kentucky Democratic convention, but gave a strong personal indorsement to Mr. Goebel from his knowledge of the party and public record of the man. Governor Stone is the Vice Chairman and acting Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and is one of the best known men in the country. His letter possesses peculiar interest at this time:

"St. Louis, Mo., August 2, 1898.

"Hon. Urey Woodson, Owensboro, Ky.—Dear Mr. Woodson: I have your favor of the 27th ult. It is entirely clear to me that Kentucky Democrats should lay aside mere personal consideration and strive to elect the ticket nominated at Louisville. I have no doubt that many good Democrats were disappointed at the result of that convention, and I have no doubt but many feel that the convention was not conducted with that degree of order and decorum which should characterize the proceedings of such a body. But it must be remembered that it often happens that the proceedings of large bodies, like the convention at Louisville, are characterized by more or less disorder and seeming unfairness, especially when personal rivalry becomes intense. But after all it rarely happens that it becomes a matter of supreme importance whether one candidate or another for party honors is successful. I believe the State of Kentucky would be safe in the hands of either distinguished gentlemen who sought the nomination of the party. While the party friends of the different candidates naturally would feel a deep interest in the success of their favorite, the candidate after all is a matter of secondary importance. What the Democracy of Kentucky and of the nation is most interested in is success at the polls. The loss of Kentucky at this time would be a serious blow to the party in the nation. It requires no argument to prove that statement true. The truth and the importance of the statement are alike self-evident. Therefore I say that the Democrats of Kentucky should put aside all personal differences for the time being and rally as one man to redeem the State and put it again safely in the Democratic column.

"So far as I can be of service to you I will be. Proud of my old native State, and loving her people as I do, I cannot contemplate with any degree of patience the possibility of defeat at the ensuing election. Very truly yours,

W. J. STONE."

There is an old gent named Brown Who wears a most horrible frown. He will head a third ticket, But Goebel will lick it And turn him most beautifully down. —Cynthia Democrat.

MUST STUDY FOUR YEARS.

Otherwise Physicians Will Not Be Allowed Hereafter to Practice in Kentucky.

The following address has been issued by the State Board of Health:

OFFICE OF STATE BOARD OF HEALTH, BOWLING GREEN, KY., Aug. 1, 1899.

The State Board of Health of Kentucky gives notice to all concerned that it will hereafter refuse to recognize, as a basis for certificates to practice medicine, diplomas from any medical college which does not, in good faith, comply with the requirements of the American Medical College Association, the American Institute of Homeopathy and the American Eclectic Medical College Association, respectively, both as to preliminary education and four years' course of study. This means that no school that graduates three-year students will be recognized in this State hereafter.

The board provided an examination for three-year graduates of the present year, as many of the students had attended such schools in ignorance of its advanced requirements, but found this course unsatisfactory, a large per cent. of the examinations indicating incomplete preliminary education as well as imperfect medical training. This standard for the State of Kentucky was made and promulgated in 1891, to take effect this year, but is again published that schools patronized by Kentucky students and future graduates expecting to practice here may fully understand our requirements. Very respectfully,

J. M. McCORMACK, Secretary.

The medical associations named in the address require a thorough course of preparatory training and four full courses of medical lectures, no two of which can be taken within the same year, thus failing to recognize as a practicing physician a man who has completed his work at a school graduating its students at the end of any period less than four years.

CYNTHIANA will have a street fair October 5th and 6th.
